The CHSA is committed to standards. Its Code of Practice and Accreditation Schemes give buyers of cleaning and hygiene products the certainty their supplier is ethical and what's on the box is what's in the box.

Every CHSA member has passed the initial audit of their product range and quality assurance procedures. Conducted by the CHSA's highly qualified Independent Inspector, it guarantees CHSA members are amongst the very best in the industry.

The CHSA's Accreditation Schemes: Our Standards Your Guarantee

The CHSA operates Accreditation Schemes for Manufacturers of paper-based and woven products, plastic-based products, cotton-based products, cleaning and hygiene chemicals and General Manufacturers, and for Distributors of cleaning and hygiene products. They guarantee buyers of these products get what they pay for.

End users know the benefits offered by the Accreditation Schemes. Many demand their distributors provide CHSA Accredited product and adhere to the ethical principles that underpin the Schemes and the CHSA's tough Code of Practice.

Guaranteed by Independent Audit

At the heart of the CHSA's rigorous auditing process is the Independent Inspector, an experienced quality assurance professional.

The Inspector audits Accredited products and members against the commitment they made when they signed the Code of Practice.

Schemes with bite

Committed to the integrity of the Schemes, The CHSA's governing Council has the authority to expel any member who, in spite of being offered the guidance required to correct issues, consistently fails to conform to the relevant Scheme Standard.
